

Bullying in School

In St Ronan's we hope that the ethos of the school promotes good relationships and discipline.

We encourage an openness that hopefully should prevent bullying. However should instances of bullying arise parents and children can be assured of a prompt and sympathetic response to resolve the situation for all involved.

In school we guide children to TELL of all physical, verbal and emotional hurts. We ask you our parents to communicate with us and be assured of our confidentiality.